Morgan is actively involved in farm and ranch real estate acquisitions, sales, leasing and property management. She represents individual investors, partnerships, corporations and has extensive relationships with large corporate and individual farm and ranch operators. Has knowledge about real estate and FF&E dispersal through auction. For 23 years Morgan has gained experience through being actively involved in everyday operations of a farm and ranch. Her knowledge she has gained about stocker cattle operations, cow-calf, corn, oats, wheat and hay production has brought value to clients. With an extensive agriculture background Morgan is able to better accommodate the farm and ranch real estate buyers, sellers and investors.
